Participants of the workshop T13b Continues their Exchanges

-Itinerant Speeches of the China-Europa Forum Kick Off in Sept.

Sept. 23, 2011

T13b “New Internet Technology and Changes of Social Behaviors” will continue their workshop meetings as the European prime mover François Launay pays a visit to Beijing at the end of September. A series of activities will be held from September 27-29, 2011.

The workshop discussions will take place in the Tencent’s new office building - Sigma Building in the afternoon of September 27, from 13:30 to 16:30. Mr. and Mrs. Launay, and the Chinese prime mover Li Fang, his assistant Yang Ziyun, Internet critic Keso, and other Chinese Internet experts will attend the roundtable meeting.

Apart from the workshop discussions, the China-Europa Forum, in co operation with People’s Daily Online, Tencent’s Yanshan Public Lecture, Peking University and Renmin University of China, is going to organize interviews and campus/public lectures in Beijing. Mr. Launay and Mrs. Launay will share their views and expertise on “Internet and Privacy Protection” and “Feeding the world in 2050! Do GMO bring the response at these questions? Different points of views of researchers in Europe.” The Forum is making every effort to establish ties for its participants. With the help of the Forum, Mr. Launay, who is also Vice-chairman of the European Charter of Cistercian abbeys and Sites, a secular organization whose purpose is for the promotion and safeguarding of Cistercian heritage, especially in architecture, will meet Mr. HE Rongzhong, the founder of a Beijing-based NGO – the Beijing Culture Heritage Protection.
